

TRAFFIC & TRANSPORT ENGINEER

- Salary up to $79K + super
- Leaseback vehicle available
- Participation in RDO Scheme
- Ref No. 09/73

Are you a motivated and enthusiastic engineer with experience in transport and traffic engineering works? Are you an experienced project manager with excellent communication skills and the ability to represent Council at high level meetings? Your ability to produce high level technical reports for the traffic committee and experience in writing and reviewing Traffic Impact Statements will ensure your success in this role.

Essential

- Engineering Degree or equivalent and post graduate experience in design, estimating, transport planning, maintenance and construction of traffic engineering works
- Ability to lead technical investigations and formulate solutions
- Solid knowledge of traffic engineering and relevant specifications
- Relevant experience in the implementation of traffic management facilities
- Demonstrated solid research, analytical and report writing skills
- Demonstrated project management experience including the preparation of specifications and contract administration
- Excellent communication(both oral and written) skills with a strong client focus
- Ability to represent Council at high level meetings
- Solid computer skills (Excel, Word et al)
- Class C Drivers Licence
- Demonstrated commitment to OHS and EEO principles and practices

Desirable

- Postgraduate qualifications in traffic engineering
- Knowledge of Paramics and commonly used traffic modelling software (aaSIDRA, Netanal, etc)
- Knowledge of relevant Local, State and Common Law

Like to know more? Call Andrew Cooper on 9952 8125

Closing date: 2 November 2009

How to apply: Please email your application to jobs@ryde.nsw.gov.au. Alternatively, you can post it to Michael Whittaker, General Manager, City of Ryde, Locked Bag 2069, North Ryde NSW 1670. All applications should address the stated selection criteria.

City of Ryde is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer.