About us

Ryde Library Service aims to meet the needs of children and young adults in our community.

We have created various programs to cater for babies, toddlers and families as well as primary and high school students.

For further information please see our friendly library staff.

Resources

The Library provides information and recreation resources for children and young adults including:

- Fiction and non-fiction books
- Magazines
- DVDs
- CDs
- Internet/PC access
- Science Kits
- Toys
- Study and social spaces
- Assistance from specialist and general staff.

Parents/carers are responsible for monitoring their children's selection and use of library resources.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Library staff do not supervise children in the Library.
- All children under the age of 8 years must be supervised by a responsible adult or mature adolescent who is 16 years or older.
- Supervision requires that the person be within sight of the child at all times.
- Unattended children may leave the library at any time, hurt themselves, or be approached by strangers.
- Library staff will attempt to contact parents or carers if children of any age are in distress or unattended for an unreasonable length of time.
- If parents/carers can not be contacted, NSW Police or the Department of Family & Community Services may be contacted.

Internet

The library promotes and supports young people's access to resources including electronic information through its Internet facilities.

Library staff are able to assist young people in the use of the Internet and to recommend websites on particular subjects.

Parents/carers are responsible for their child's use of the Internet.
