| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No training was involved</li> <li>• 85 Applications were received to be a Youth Ambassador. 20 people were chosen for an interview by the Mayor and Councillors. Then the chosen applicants were required to give an impromptu speech from which 2 people were chosen to be Ambassadors.</li> <li>• It can be any combination of male or female with age range from 15 to 18 years of ages.</li> </ul> The functions of the Youth Ambassadors are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Promote major events run by Blacktown Council.</li> <li>• Speeches for the Citizenship Ceremony</li> <li>• They are involved in two Committees</li> <li>• Annual Events like Search for Young Performing Artists</li> <li>• Ambassadors do a speech at every Citizenship Ceremony</li> </ul> What advice if you were to rotate to the Ambassador role: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Make sure everyone gets the same opportunity but it would depend on the amount of activities you wanted to do each year.</li> </ul> Blacktown Council offered public speaking, media and social media training which was very helpful. The students learnt how to properly address the Mayor and Councillors. They were advised to get their speeches checked by Council first and their opinions had to mirror the Mayors, especially on political matters. The Ambassadors also had a mentor alongside them the whole time who gave briefing and support before the major events. The students will help put together alongside Councillor Pedersen a draft Notice of Motion on the Youth Ambassador Program. |   |
