

MAYOR'S COMMUNITY MESSAGE

Information sessions to improve pedestrian safety around schools

Thank you to everyone who attended the first two information sessions held at Meadowbank and Denistone East public schools last week as part of the consultation currently taking place by the City of Ryde to improve pedestrian and traffic access around local schools.

I personally found it extremely beneficial to meet directly with concerned parents and residents and hear the views that were raised during the sessions.

Many expressed their frustrations, and as a parent myself, I completely understand those frustrations and can assure you that I am just as eager to see progress in this area.

I would encourage everyone who has concerns about pedestrian and traffic issues around schools to attend the information session for their school. The next school sessions are for Truscott Street Public School on Wednesday 4 April, 7.00 - 8.00pm and West Ryde Public School on Tuesday 10 April, 7.00 - 8.00pm.

If you cannot get to one of the information sessions, you can submit your views online or add your comments to the interactive online map at

Advocating for our local community

Outside of the discussions to improve pedestrian safety around schools, one other major takeaway from the information sessions was a desire for Council to be an advocate for the community on state and federal issues.

I want to assure you all that the City of Ryde is happy to be the community's voice on all important state and federal matters and will continue to advocate on behalf of all residents.

Recent examples of this include Councillors resolving to pressure the State Government to reinstate bus services in East Ryde, address concerns about the establishment of a mandatory IHAP for Ryde to assess development applications and to commit to funding local services that care for the disabled once the NDIS is introduced.

If you do have a concern about a State or Federal Government issue that you would like Council to raise on your behalf please feel free to contact me directly or any other Councillor, and I can assure you that we will progress the matter.

Events, events and more events

One of the great things about living in the City of Ryde is the great number of events that are put on for the community and the next fortnight is testament to that.

On Thursday this week from 9.30am there will be the Harmony Day Community Information Expo at Eastwood Plaza. The expo will allow us to celebrate our diverse community with cultural performances and more than 50 information stalls aimed at assisting residents and new migrants.

And this week we will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the West Ryde Easter Parade and Fair which will see 5,000 people witness the traditional street parade as well as family entertainment, market stalls, carnival rides and the popular Easter Bonnet and West Ryde Singing Star competitions.

Sincerely,

Clr Jerome Laxale - Mayor
