Sustainable Waste 2 Art Prize

Tune into the City of Ryde Facebook page at 8.00pm on Monday 20 December for the announcement of the winners of the 2021 Sustainable Waste 2 Art Prize (SWAP).

This year's SWAP competition received more than 190 fabulous entries, which used re-purposed waste and recovered materials to produce dynamic pieces of art.

Following the announcement of the winners, 70 shortlisted entries will be able to be viewed in person at Brush Farm House in Eastwood from Tuesday 21 to Friday 24 December 2021 between 10.00am and 4.00pm. The works are also able to be viewed online until Sunday 30 January 2022.

For more information visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/SWAP

Extra recycling service this festive season

A reminder that the City of Ryde is offering a free one-off additional recycling collection from Monday 3 January to Friday 7 January 2022 to help residents manage their recycling during the festive period.

This service is available to properties that have their recycling bins collected fortnightly.

Most multi-unit dwellings with shared bins have a weekly recycling collection, and therefore do not need to apply.

Bookings are essential and you must book the additional collection for the same day that your bins are normally collected. Bookings close at 5.00pm on Sunday 19 December 2021, or when booked out.

Find out more and book your extra service at www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/recycling

2022 Road Safety Calendar

The City of Ryde has teamed up with six other northern Sydney councils and local illustrator Oscar Nimmo to create the 2022 Road Safety Calendar.

The new calendar has a unique look and includes important road safety messages for all road users. There is also information on visibility for vulnerable road users, getting to school using active travel, safe parking tips, avoiding distraction as a pedestrian and more.

The 2022 Road Safety Calendar is available for free from City of Ryde Libraries, the Customer Service Centre, Ryde Aquatic Leisure Centre and various community locations. Residents can also have a calendar mailed to them simply by contacting Customer Service on 9952 8222 or cityofryde@ryde.nsw.gov.au
