

City of Ryde Mayor, Clr Jordan Lane at the 2021 ANZAC Day Commemoration Service.

ANZAC DAY

Join us this ANZAC Day (Monday 25 April) as the City of Ryde hosts a commemorative service from 9.00am at Anzac Park in West Ryde.

ANZAC Day is an important occasion in which we can come together to reflect, remember and honour those who served as well as those who lost their lives in past and present conflicts.

Handmade Poppies donated by The Hand Weavers and Spinners Guild of NSW will be available for the first 200 guests at ANZAC Park.

Morning tea will also be available at Ryde Eastwood Leagues Club after the service.

INCREASING RYDE'S TREE CANOPY COVERAGE

In great news for the community and the local environment, Council will identify suitable locations for the planting of at least 1,300 additional street trees across the City of Ryde. The new initiative is part of Council's commitment to achieve a tree canopy coverage of 40 per cent across the City of Ryde by 2030.

A report will be developed by Council staff identifying native species that will be used for the tree planting. Council will also consult with local residents prior to the plantings taking place.

Special thanks to Clr Shweta Deshpande for bringing this initiative to Council, and for her tireless advocacy to improve sustainability and invest in our local environment.

ORCHESTRA AT BRUSH FARM

Grab your picnic rug and head on down to the lawns of historical Brush Farm House in Eastwood this Saturday 23 April for Orchestra at Brush Farm.

This free event will see performances from the Ryde Hunters Hill Symphony Orchestra, supported by the Northern Sydney Youth Orchestra.

People will also be able to take self-guided tours of the beautiful heritage-listed Brush Farm House and learn about its amazing history. The Hand Weavers and Spinners Guild of NSW will also be doing live demonstrations throughout the afternoon.

In addition, there will be a Lego workshop on site to keep the kids entertained. There will also be a licenced bar and grazing boxes available for purchase at the event.

Gates open at 2.00pm with the concert beginning at 3.00pm. For more information visit
