

This year's Granny Smith Festival is shaping to be one of the biggest yet.

GRANNY SMITH FESTIVAL

The Granny Smith Festival will return to the streets of Eastwood on Saturday 15 October 2022 after two years of disruptions.

I am pleased to report that applications for stallholders, parade participants and performers at this year's festival open this week.

RATE RELIEF

Council has passed its 2022-2026 Four Year Delivery Program and One Year Operational Plan 2022/23, which outline the projects and initiatives Council has committed to deliver for the community over the next four years.

Included in the documents is budgeted capital expenditure of $109.25 million. Pleasingly, Council will deliver a modest rate cut for the average residential ratepayer in the City of Ryde.

This cut comes at a time of rising cost of living expenses and when 86 other councils across NSW are increasing their rates.

Council will deliver the rate cut while still delivering the essential services that our community expects and deserve.

T.G. MILLNER FIELDS

The City of Ryde has endorsed a motion that will help secure T.G. Millner fields as green open space both now and into the future.

The move comes after the landowners of T.G. Millner fields submitted a Planning Proposal seeking to rezone the land to accommodate housing on part of the site.

The City of Ryde already has a deficiency in open space and sports fields that is being exacerbated by population growth and as Mayor I will do all that I can to ensure that T.G. Millner is protected.

Sincerely,

Clr Jordan Lane
Mayor
