The Ryde Hunters Hill Symphony Orchestra with conductor Ian Cox will perform several classical numbers including works by Mozart, Mendelssohn and Haydn.

There will also be an on-site bar, cheeseboards, coffee and desserts available for purchase. Brush Farm House will also be open for the public to tour throughout the evening.

In the event of wet weather the Orchestra in the Park will be postponed. For updates visit ryde.rocks/parkseries.

New outdoor youth and family recreation space at Meadowbank Park almost complete

The City of Ryde will soon have a new first-class recreational outdoor space with the finishing touches being put on the new skate park at Meadowbank Park.

Once completed the new open space will have skate and scooter facilities to suit all ages and skill levels. This will include a 3 metre deep Olympic-standard competition bowl which will offer competitive skaters with one of the best training facilities in NSW. Other features include picnic facilities, landscape lighting and new footpaths.

Council will consult with the Sport and Recreation and Wheeled Sports Advisory Committee as well as the Ryde District Historical Society to determine a suitable name for the new facility.

The opening will be celebrated with a special event on Saturday 27 April which will feature professional rider demonstrations and age-based competitions. Riders can register for free on the day.
