City of Ryde signs friendship agreement with Jongno-gu

It was a privilege last week to represent the City of Ryde and join with Kim Young-Jong, the Mayor from the South Korean city of Jongno-gu, to sign a friendship agreement between the two councils.

Both Ryde and Jongno-gu have a number of similarities in terms of population, demographics and being home to some of the biggest technological and innovation companies.

The friendship agreement will pave the way for both cities to establish strong community, cultural and business links between one another through the exchange of ideas and information.
