

Clr Bernard Purcell and Clr Jerome Laxale – Mayor hosting the online City of Ryde Volunteer Recognition Awards.

Winners of the 2020 Volunteer Recognition Awards announced

It was fantastic that so many people within the community joined us for this year's special online edition of the City of Ryde Volunteer Recognition Awards.

Volunteers are the backbone of our community and I am delighted that we were able to recognise their achievements once again.

I would like to congratulate the following award winners and thank them for all of their efforts to the community:

- Individual: Yung Shim Lee Kim
- Special Commendation: Edwin Ikwu
- Young: Claire Sellar
- Group: Afghan Women's Wellbeing Group

In addition, I would also like to acknowledge the work of all the award nominees.

If you were not able to tune in to the awards last week, the entire ceremony can be viewed online at www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/volunteerawards.

Tattoo parlour approved despite opposition

Last week, the NSW Land and Environment Court granted development consent for a tattoo parlour to be established at 31 Cobham Avenue, Melrose Park, despite strong opposition from the local community and Council.

The decision to grant development consent was made by the Court despite City of Ryde staff recommending the development application be refused – a position subsequently supported by the Ryde Local Planning Panel which rejected the application last year.

Both Council and the planning panel found that the tattoo parlour would be contrary to the objectives of the zone where 31 Cobham Avenue is located, which is to provide a range of small-scale retail, business and community uses, such as hairdressers, pharmacists or butchers.

While this type of zoning is consistent across Sydney, the Court overturned the decision of the planning panel.

The decision of the Court is extremely disappointing and I have now asked staff to provide Council with any options it may have available to it in regards to the approval of this tattoo parlour.

Northern Districts Local Business awards

Do you know an outstanding local business that goes above and beyond for its customers?

If the answer is yes, I would strongly encourage you to vote for that business in this year's Northern Districts Local Business Awards.

The Northern Districts Business Awards are designed to celebrate and reward local business for all that they do for the local community and beyond. Given the challenging business environment due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, the chance to recognise the great efforts of our local businesses is more important than ever.

Voting for this year's awards closes on Thursday 20 August.

Rates relief for Ryde

A reminder that approved JobSeeker and JobKeeper applicants may defer rates payments until November and are eligible for a $400 council rates rebate, as part of Council's efforts to help those in the community undergoing financial hardship as a result of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

For more information and to apply visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/ratesrelief.

Sincerely,

Clr Jerome Laxale
Mayor
