

Monday 29 October 2012

CHIPMUNKS AHOY! – CINEMA IN THE PLAZA, EASTWOOD Friday 9 November 2012, 8.00pm

Eastwood Plaza will ring to the cheeky chatter of chipmunks and un-fur-gettable fun when Alvin and the Chipmunks: Chipwrecked comes to the open air Cinema in the Plaza on Friday 9 November.

The Mayor Cllr Ivan Petch says: “Watching movies under the stars is becoming a great local tradition and Eastwood Plaza is now a popular addition to our long-running outdoor cinema events.

“Eastwood is also home to some of the best Asian cuisine around, plus there are good transport and parking options.”

So, if you’ve been working hard all week, chilling after your HSC exams, or just wanting to catch up with your mates, get ready for a tidal wave of top-tapping family fun Eastwood Plaza style.

Synopsis: Alvin and the Chipmunks: Chipwrecked The ‘munks’ go on vacation aboard a luxury cruise liner but end up stranded on a remote island. Toe-tapping music. Great family fun.

Rated G. Runs 87 minutes. Starts at sundown approximately 8.00pm.
400 chairs provided, or bring your own comfy fold-up chair. Wheelchair access.
www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/cinema 9952 8222

Media contacts: City of Ryde: Lee Kirkland Media Officer 9952 8083