

Monday 7 December 2015

A HAPPY HO-HO TIME AT THE COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

A family crowd of around 2,500 descended on Ryde Park on Sunday to enjoy the giant water slide, a visit by Santa, Christmas crafts and the chance to 'dunk' the Mayor in a big tub of water, at the Council's annual beach-themed Community Christmas Celebration.

Everyone's favourite Hot Potato Band and Peter Combe and the Belly-Flop in a Pizza Band and a special performance by AvenueD kept the crowd entertained and there was an eager line up all afternoon to play in the monster sandpit and make some crazy Christmas craft.

To top it all off, the Salvation Army had the sausages sizzling and the Bubble Man created amazing multi-coloured bubbles, plus there were funny hats galore.

Everyone had a very happy ho-ho-holiday time.

Contact: Lee Kirkland City of Ryde Media Officer p9952 8083 m0434 306 444
lkirkland@ryde.nsw.gov.au