Public Health Regulation 2012

12 Register of water-cooling and warm-water systems

- (1) Each local government authority is to maintain a register of water-cooling systems and warm-water systems installed on premises in its area.
- (2) The register must contain the following particulars relating to each regulated system:
 - (a) the address and telephone number of the premises on which the system is installed,
 - (b) the name and contact details of the occupier of the premises (including residential address, e-mail address and home, business and mobile telephone numbers),
 - (c) the Australian Business Number (ABN) or Australian Company Number (ACN) (if any) of the occupier of the premises,
 - (d) the type of regulated system,
 - (e) details of any inspections carried out by the local government authority for the purposes of the Act.
- (3) A local government authority must on request make its register available for inspection without charge by the Director-General, a public health officer or an officer of the Ministry of Health authorised by the Director-General.

Public Health Act 2010 (Part 1, Section 5)

occupier of premises or a part of premises (including premises that are vacant) means:

- (a) except as provided by paragraph (b), the owner of the premises or part, or
- (b) if any other person is entitled to occupy the premises or part to the exclusion of the owner, the person so entitled.
