GREAT COMMUNITY RESPONSE TO INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY ART

With close to 90 expressive artworks vying for first prize, the inaugural City of Ryde International Women's Day Art Exhibition opens this Friday March 4 at Brush Farm House.

The exhibition marks 100 years of International Women's Day, a global day celebrating the economic, political and social achievements of women past, present and future.

Mayor, Cllr Artin Etmekdjian, said: "We are delighted with the community's response with entries coming from residents, workers and students of all ages and cultural backgrounds.

"This exhibition not only celebrates International Women's Day it also celebrates our community, by showcasing their diversity and talents through a wide spectrum of art forms, including installation pieces, sculpture, paintings and drawings."

The exhibition is on for 2 days only.

Winners will be announced at the exhibition opening on Friday March 4, 6.00pm.
