NEW CENTRE FOR PLANNING AND BUSINESS OPENS

The new Ryde Planning and Business Centre will open on Thursday 5 May heralding a more personalised approach to customer service in the City of Ryde.

Situated in Top Ryde City shopping centre, directly beneath Ryde Library, this new centre provides specialised planning, development and business services for residents, building professionals, business operators and investors.

The Ryde Planning and Business Centre will provide personalised services to residents, building professionals, business operators and investors. It will operate on an appointment basis providing customers one-on-one meetings with specialised staff in a comfortable, modern office environment.

Services available at the new centre will include:

Planning and Development

- Planning and development enquiries
- Development Application lodgement
- Payment of development fees
- Building compliance
- Viewing of notification and exhibition material
- Search of historical documents.

Business Services and Support from:

- City of Ryde Economic Development Officer
- Ryde Business Forum representatives.
