

Wednesday 11 January 2012.

SO YOU WANT TO BE A COUNCILLOR 2012 SEMINARS

Residents interested in standing for public office at the 2012 Local Government election are invited to attend one of three information seminars being held in February and March.

Hosted by City of Ryde General Manager John Neish, the seminars will include a presentation on the election process, including the logistics of conducting a campaign, as well as a Q & A expert panel session to give attendees the chance to find out what is involved in becoming a Councillor.

So, you want to be a Councillor seminars

- Monday 20 February, 5.30 – 8.30pm, Eastwood Women's Rest Centre, cnr Hillview Avenue and West Parade
- Monday 27 February, 5.30 – 8.30pm, Gladesville Library, 6 Pittwater Road
- Thursday 1 March, 5.30 – 8.30pm, Ryde Civic Centre, 1 Devlin Street, Level 5, Rooms 2 & 3

To make a reservation, please contact Customer Service on 9952 8222.

The first So you want to be a Councillor seminar held in November was aimed specifically at potential women candidates and received very positive feedback from the over forty attendees.