THE THIRD SEASON – Ryde’s Spring Art Exhibitions

Over the next six weeks the City of Ryde will be bursting with community inspired art.

“Following the overwhelming success of the Hungry for Art Festival in August, Council is again partnering with local artists and Meadowbank College to stage three exciting new exhibitions,” said Chris Hellmundt, City of Ryde Coordinator Council Projects.

Ryde’s Spring Art Exhibitions illustrate that great art and culture is right here on your doorstep.

Sydney Korean Photo Club

Landscapes, people, macros and creatives through the lens – an exhibition of 80 photographs by 18 members of the Sydney Korean Photo Club.

Gallery: Brush Farm House, 19 Lawson Street, Eastwood

Dates: Tuesday 18 - Sunday 30 September. Open daily 10.00am - 5.00pm

Opening: Saturday 22 September, 3.00pm

The Marriage of Art and Lettering

The ancient practise of calligraphy has evolved through the centuries and some fine examples of modern day calligraphy - the Marriage of Art and Lettering - can be seen at See Street Gallery, Meadowbank, for a limited season. These thought provoking works are by members of the Australian Society of Calligraphers.

Gallery: See Street Gallery, See Street, Meadowbank

Dates: Friday 28 September - Saturday 6 October. Open daily 10.00am - 4.00pm (except Sunday and public holiday Monday)

Opening: Thursday 27 September, 6.00 - 8.00pm

The Secret Life of Your Objects

Local artist Chrissie Ianssen is interested in the way people identify with the ornaments they keep around them. Earlier this year she visited the homes of local residents to talk about and photograph the objects around their houses. Come to this exhibition to find out how she responded and experience the paintings she created.

Gallery: Brush Farm House, 19 Lawson Street, Eastwood

Dates: Friday 5 - Sunday 14 October 2012. Open daily from 11am to 3pm

Opening: Saturday, 6 October, 2.00 – 4.00pm
