

City of Ryde Mayor Clr Jordan Lane is getting ready for the Granny Smith Festival.

GRANNY SMITH FESTIVAL IS BACK

After two years of cancellations, it is great news that the famous Granny Smith Festival is returning to the streets of Eastwood on Saturday 15 October 2022. The Granny Smith Festival not only celebrates the life and legacy of Granny Smith and her famous green apples, but also highlights our vibrant and diverse community in the City of Ryde.

This year's festival plans to have many of the beloved traditional activities as well as some new and exciting features as well. Applications for stallholders, parade and performers will open in July. Anyone interested in sponsoring this year's Granny Smith Festival can contact events@ryde.nsw.gov.au

DISABILITY INCLUSION ACCESS PLAN

The City of Ryde is committed to making our community a better place to live, work and visit for people with a disability through the development of the draft Disability Inclusion Action Plan 2022 – 2026.

Developed with extensive input from the community, the plan identifies actions which Council will undertake to assist people living with a disability so they can participate in community life, by ensuring our services, facilities and workplaces are accessible and inclusive.

The draft Disability Inclusion Action Plan 2022 – 2026 is currently on public exhibition and I would encourage everyone to take part in this consultation process.

For more information and to view the plan visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/haveyoursay/DIAP

NAIDOC WEEK

Celebrate NAIDOC Week in the City of Ryde between 3 and 10 July 2022 with a range of events designed to recognise the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

This includes Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander performances, readings as well as children's learning activities and storytime.

For a full list of all the NAIDOC Week events taking place in the City of Ryde visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/NAIDOC

Sincerely,

Clr Jordan Lane
