

City of Ryde Mayor Clr Jordan Lane enjoying Mac Park Social

VALE QUEEN ELIZABETH II

I was deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II last Friday. As the Australian sovereign and the UK's longest-reigning monarch, she was a true inspiration to many in our country and worldwide.

Her service and devotion to our nation and the entire Commonwealth has been immense and I pass on my deepest condolences to the Royal family.

In honour of Her Majesty, Council is flying the Australian flag at half-mast.

If you would like to pass on a message of condolence to Buckingham Palace, you can do so via Council's online condolence book at www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/queencondolences or drop by Ryde Library during opening hours to record your message digitally.

MAC PARK SOCIAL

Last Wednesday I dropped by the Mediterranean Piazza pop-up as part of Council's Mac Park Social event series. The transformation was incredible, with a roaming opera singer, flower stand, free shoeshines and food trucks. It was fantastic to get out in the fresh air with Macquarie Park workers and residents and enjoy delicious treats and live music in an immersive world food experience.

I would encourage anyone in the area to join in the fun, with three more events to take place in September including the Americana Market being held today (14 September) on Giffnock Lane, Asian Street Food on 21 September on Talavera Road and a Middle Eastern Bazaar on Thomas Holt Drive on 28 September. The events run from 11.00am - 2.00pm.

Plus, you can be in with a chance to win a $100 gift voucher to spend at a participating local business in Macquarie Park. All you need to do is come along to the event, take a selfie or food pic at Mac Park Social and upload your photo to Instagram. Remember to include the hashtag #MacParkSocial and tag @CityofRyde in your post!

SWAP EXHIBITION AND PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARD ON NOW

Congratulations to all our talented winners and entrants in this year's Sustainable Waste 2 Art (SWAP) Prize. I was so privileged to be able to attend the exhibition opening night and see the amazing artworks in person, which are made from repurposed rubbish and recovered materials.

It's your last chance to see them in the flesh, with the in-person exhibition at See Street Gallery, Meadowbank TAFE closing tomorrow, 15 September.

However, the selected artworks will also be able to be viewed online via a virtual tour until Friday 30 September 2022. You can also vote for your favourite artwork or design object in the SWAP People's Choice Award.
