

City of Ryde Mayor Clr Jordan Lane and Clr Sarkis Yedelian OAM pledging their support for the EveryAGE Counts campaign.

ENDING AGEISM

At the Council meeting held on 23 August, I was pleased to put forward a Mayoral Minute to support the EveryAGE Counts campaign, which was supported by all Councillors. This campaign aims to end ageism and join with others in the community to create a society where every person is valued, connected and respected, regardless of age.

EveryAGE Counts is a grassroots campaign of individuals and organisations dedicated to highlighting the social, economic and civic impacts of ageism, and building an Australia that no longer tolerates it. It aims to achieve this by working in communities to positively change thinking about ageing, to re-imagine getting older and to set the foundations for current and future generations to age well.

The EveryAGE pledge is one way community members can show their support and I encourage anyone who is interested to visit the EveryAGE website and take the pledge, as I have done.

MAC PARK SOCIAL

This Wednesday is the fourth and final instalment of the Mac Park Social series! I encourage everyone to get out in the fresh air and join in the fun at Thomas Holt Drive, Macquarie Park, as it's transformed into a Middle Eastern Bazaar from 11.00am - 2.00pm on 28 September.

There'll be authentic entertainment from belly dancers, a free photobooth with a desert Bedouin vibe, along with delicious gozleme, gourmet felafel, barbecued meats and much more.

Plus, City of Ryde will also be giving away free ice cream from Gelato Messina to the first 100 people on a first-in-first-served basis.

Custom flavours include Baklava Gelato, Ode to Zeno and Pistachio Praline.

And don't forget that Council is giving away two $100 gift vouchers each week to be spent at participating local businesses in Macquarie Park. All you need to do is come along to MacPark Social, take a selfie or food pic at Mac Park Social and upload your photo to Instagram. Remember to include the hashtag #MacParkSocial and tag @CityofRyde in your post!
