

City of Ryde Mayor Clr Jordan Lane, Josephine Dominello and The Hon. Victor Dominello MP in the Granny Smith Festival Grand Street Parade.

GRANNY SMITH FESTIVAL

The Granny Smith Festival was again a major success this year. It's always a pleasure to come to this event and particularly to see people from all parts of the community celebrating and enjoying themselves together. I really enjoyed the Grand Street Parade and seeing the creativity and time that people had put into their costumes and floats.

There were many special highlights at this year's Festival. It was fantastic having Dami Im performing and showcasing her talent to our City. There were countless activities that people really enjoyed including the Core Youth Zone, circus playground, stage performances, food trucks, market stalls and cider bar.

Thank you very much to our sponsors - especially our Platinum Sponsor, RMA - who helped make this year's festival possible. I also want to thank Council staff, the Granny Smith Festival Committee and all those who helped organise the event. I know that they worked very hard and the success of the event was a tribute to their hard work.

INCLUSION AWARD NOMINATIONS

The deadline for nominations for this year's business Inclusion Award is fast approaching with the final date for nominations set for 26 October 2022. The Inclusion Award celebrates businesses that welcome people of all backgrounds and abilities.

To be eligible for this award, businesses must operate in the City of Ryde local government area.

They must also demonstrate a commitment to creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for customers and staff and demonstrate how the business is adopting inclusive practices that go above and beyond.

Customers can nominate a business that they see doing a good job or businesses and staff can also nominate. For more information head to: www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/inclusionaward

ART IN TUNE EXHIBITION

Social activities such as art, music and sport are very important to maintaining strong mental health. Local group Cornucopia Art Group and contemporary artist Miguel Olmo have created an exhibition which coincides with mental health month.

The Cornucopia art group is a group for members of the Ryde community who access mental health services. The group was set up 17 years ago with the purpose of providing a creative outlet and a space to create new works.

This exhibition will involve converting images to sounds and creating a collective audio soundscape. It sounds very interesting. The exhibition will be showcased between 9.30am - 4.00pm on Tuesday 25 October to Friday 28 October at IntoArts Gallery, 71 Ryedale Rd, West Ryde. For more information head to: www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/artintune

Sincerely,

Clr Jordan Lane
