

City of Ryde Mayor Clr Sarkis Yedelian OAM visiting the City of Ryde Customer Service Centre

FACE-TO-FACE DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY APPOINTMENTS ARE BACK

I dropped by Council's Customer Service Centre recently to check out our Development Advisory Service, which is now offering face-to-face appointments in addition to phone and teleconference options.

The service provides front-end planning and development information for residents and building and development professionals. The team can assist with planning and development enquiries, development application lodgement through the NSW Planning Portal, viewing of notification and exhibition material, formal pre-lodgement review services and urban design review.

For more information and to book a time visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/DAS

SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAM

The April school holidays are just around the corner and Council is offering a huge range of free activities around a theme of 'Spectacular Petacular'.

Workshops cover everything from robotics to watercolours, pet rock art, wildlife exploration and more.

Register now to ensure you don't miss out at www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/schoolholidays

HARMONY DAY

To celebrate Harmony Week, City of Ryde is partnering with CASS, the Community Migrant Resource Centre and Relationships Australia NSW to host a colourful and fun event for the whole community.

Join us on Saturday 18 March at West Ryde Plaza for cultural performances from Chinese, Korean, Italian, Indian, Indonesian, Armenian and other groups. There will also be face painting, limbo, musical statues games and ribbon dancing for kids.

Everyone is encouraged to wear their traditional dress or something orange to celebrate Harmony Day and join in the fashion parade at the end of the event.

For more information visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/harmonyday

Sincerely,

Sarkis Yedelian
