PRESENTATION TO SES

Together with City of Ryde CEO Wayne Rylands, I presented two co-branded table covers to Local Commander Keiran Gibson and Community Engagement Officer Warren Smith on Monday 20 March on behalf of the NSW SES Ryde Unit.

This donation is a token of Council's gratitude to the NSW SES Ryde Unit for its ongoing support and dedication to building community emergency resilience in our area as we move through times of increased shocks and stresses felt by weather and climate events.

Council has been partnering with NSW SES Ryde Unit to host workshops that increase resilience knowledge through emergency preparedness to our diverse community towards a 'resilient ready' future for Ryde.

I have been a proud volunteer for the SES since 2005 and am the recipient of a long service award. The unit's commitment to its tough and demanding work deserves to be applauded.

KOREAN DELEGATION VISITS

City of Ryde played host to some very special visitors on Tuesday 21 March when a delegation from Jungnang-Gu, a district in the South Korean capital of Seoul on the north side of the Han River, stopped by Council chambers.

The delegation was given a rundown on Ryde's many wonderful attributes, including the booming Macquarie Park innovation district and study opportunities at Macquarie University.

It was pleasing to note how engaged the visitors were by our presentation, with many interesting follow-up questions being asked about Ryde, local government and broader Australian policy.

EASTER AT WEST RYDE

A wonderful day out for the whole family awaits on Saturday 1 April with the annual West Ryde Easter Celebration taking place at Anzac Park between 9.00am and 3.30pm.

Enjoy a day filled with thrilling rides, kids' activities and face painting, food trucks, a BBQ, an Easter concert and up-close-and-personal experiences with the adorable creatures in the animal farm.

Unlimited rides and entry to the animal farm can be purchased for $25 and the first 500 people to buy their tickets will also get a free Easter show bag, so it pays to arrive early!
