AUSTRALIA DAY HONOURS

Recently, I hosted a morning tea for our wonderful City of Ryde residents who received Australia Day awards.

Ryde's Jennifer Collins and Eastwood's Emeritus Professor Richard Howitt were appointed Members of the Order of Australia (AM), while Medals of the Order of Australia (OAM) were awarded to Ryde's the late Rosario 'Ross' Rocca, Marsfield's Janet Craik, Ryde's Trisha Gardiner-Wilson, Gladesville's Giles Gunesekera, Denistone's Warren and Clare Hopley, West Ryde's Ronald Palmer, and Joan Ryan, also of West Ryde.

It was a terrific opportunity to meet some of the recipients and thank them for their service to the community.

It's a very special recognition and I'd like to congratulate them all.

MUSICAL MORNING

Ryde Library is presenting a free morning of music with the talented young members of RSC Jazz Band on Monday 17 April between 10.30am and 11.30am.

The group, led by tutor Luke Davis, is a mix of Ryde Secondary College students from Years 8-12 who are seeking to extend their instrumental skills.

During their weekly rehearsal, they focus on utilising their understanding of theory and rhythm to perform jazz pieces as a cohesive ensemble and build upon their own individual skills.

Already experienced in live performance, the group will be playing selections of works from their course of study including The Land of Chocolate, Just the Two of Us and Flamenco Sketches.

CINEMA IN THE PARK

There's no better way to relax than by taking in a movie under the stars at one of our City's beautiful parks.

There are two great movies to enjoy at Cinema in the Park this upcoming weekend.

On Friday 14 April, you can catch DC League of Superpets at Fontenoy Park, Macquarie Park, and on Saturday 15 April Puss in Boots: The Last Wish is screening at Ryde Park.

Entry to these family-friendly events from 5.00pm is free and as an extra bonus there is free popcorn for the first 300 groups to arrive.
