ANZAC DAY COMMEMORATION

At a time of heightened geopolitical tensions with the sounds of conflict echoing around the world, it's important to remember the vast human cost of war and the bravery of the men and women who have fought for their countries.

That's why Anzac Day is so special. Since 1916 this sacred day has marked the anniversary of the first major military action fought by Australian and New Zealand forces (the Anzacs) during the Gallipoli campaign of the First World War.

Every year Council holds a commemorative service for the community. It's a time for silent remembrance and deep gratitude.

Please join us at Anzac Park, West Ryde on Tuesday 25 April for our 9.00 – 10.00am service followed by morning tea and a special orchestral performance by Ryde Hunters Hill Symphony Orchestra at Ryde Eastwood Leagues Club.

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

Some of our City's up-and-coming young musical stars will be in action on Thursday 20 April at Meadowbank Skate Park with the return of Battle of the Bands – a competition for young musos aged from 12-24.

There's a terrific first prize up for grabs, too, with the winners earning a recording studio session to help get their music out into the world.

Taking place between 1.00pm and 4.00pm, a jam-packed afternoon is promised, with skate clinics, a DJ set, live performances and stalls. So, come out and let's celebrate some great local talent!

KISSING POINT LEGEND

You may be familiar with James Squire from the beer that bears his name, but how many of you know the real-life story of the man behind the brand?

James Squire – Ratbag Thief to Patriarch of Kissing Point, an illustrated lecture being presented at Ryde Library on Thursday 20 April from 6.30 - 8.00pm by Peter Mitchell, takes a deep dive into Squire's eventful life.

The First Fleet convict and alleged protector of Governor Phillip became Australia's first commercial brewer, an Eastern Farms constable, a friend to the Kissing Point tribe, and a philanthropist.

Peter's lecture, which is part of the National Trust Australian Heritage Festival, will probe Squire's life in England, his convict days in America and NSW, his commercial achievements, and the evolving mythology about one of our 'larger than life' entrepreneurs.
