City of Ryde Mayor, Clr Sarkis Yedelian OAM with Clrs Trenton Brown and Bernard Purcell at the farewell of the Director General of the Taiwanese Economic and Cultural Office in Sydney, Fiona Fan.

TAIWANESE HONOUR

I was honoured, along with fellow City of Ryde Councillors Trenton Brown and Bernard Purcell, to attend the farewell of the current Director General of the Taiwanese Economic and Cultural Office in Sydney, Fiona Fan.

Council representatives were invited as guests of Ms Fan in recognition of our efforts in international relations and Council's delegation to the Taipei Smart City Expo and Conference in March 2023.

Ms Fan has been a strong advocate for Australian-Taiwanese trade on economics, education, arts, and culture. She had a hands-on role helping the delegation from the City of Ryde meet with key business representatives as well as Government officials in Hsinchu County and the Hsinchu Science Park.

The City of Ryde wishes her well in her new role as Ambassador to the Caribbean nation of St Vincent.

ART IN ACTION

Two new spectacular public art projects recently unveiled in the City of Ryde are paying tribute to our sports-loving community as well as adding some colour and vibrancy to a couple of popular local parks.

A baseball-themed mural covers the storage shed used by the mighty Ryde Hawks at ELS Hall Park in North Ryde, while touch football, cricket and soccer are represented in an action-packed design installed on an amenities block in Morrison Bay Park, Putney.

The artworks are part of Council's Graffiti Management Project, designed to beautify our City, instil a sense of community and discourage graffiti. I encourage you to go and check them out.

KOREATOWN GRANT

Visitors to the Rowe Street East area in Eastwood would have noticed the beginning of Council's activation of the new Koreatown precinct, which will encourage tourism and economic activity in one of our most important strategic centres.

Last night, a gathering organised by the Korean Chambers in the City of Ryde (KCCR) celebrated the awarding of the State Government's $198,200 Uptown Grant to Koreatown, which adds to Council's plans in formally recognising Sydney's best-known Korean cultural precinct.

This project enhances Eastwood's well-earned reputation as a friendly, inclusive, and harmonious community that already enthusiastically contributes to diverse and popular annual events like the Lunar New Year and Granny Smith Festivals.

Sincerely,

Clr Sarkis Yedelian OAM
