SENSEI MIKE

It was my honour recently to join fellow City of Ryde Councillor Roy Maggio and the family and friends of the late Michael Carozza to unveil a plaque dedicated to his memory at the Charity Creek Cascades playground in Ryde.

Michael – also affectionately known as Sensei Mike – was an instructor in Japanese Ju-Jitsu and taught over 1,350 students, aged from three to 65.

A loving family man, Michael dedicated himself to sport and recreation and will be missed by all of those who were enriched by the care and service he showed his community.

The plaque was installed after a motion presented by Clr Maggio was passed unanimously at the April 2023 Council Meeting.

RYDE COMIC-CON

City of Ryde Libraries annual Comic-con event during the July School Holidays brought in over 800 people to Ryde Library for a day of superheroes, games, and activities.

Batman and Wonder Woman launched the event with energetic dance performances that got all the little superheroes supercharged for the day.

The most popular activities of the day were the virtual reality games, where kids tried their hand at fruit ninja, and the green screen room, with excited young participants dabbling in the magic of special effects.

GRANNY SMITH TIME

The countdown has already begun for this year's edition of the ever-popular Granny Smith Festival, which will be staged in the heart of Eastwood on Saturday 21 October.

The festival will be celebrating 38 years with old favourites and new activities, including amusement rides, market stalls, food trucks, performances, youth zone, kids' activities and ending with a celebrity performance and fireworks spectacular.

Applications are now open for those who want to actively participate, with sponsorship package applications open until 16 August and stallholder (food and non-food), performers, Grand Street Parade and Big Apple Singing competition applications open until 6 August. Go to ryde.events/GSF

Sincerely,

Sarkis Yedelian
