

City of Ryde Mayor, Cnr Sarkis Yedelian OAM at the Northern Districts Local Business Awards

BOOMING BUSINESS

It was terrific to see our thriving business sector acknowledged last week at the Northern Districts Local Business Awards, of which City of Ryde was a Major Partner.

All the nominees and winners are outstanding examples of the creativity, determination, and sheer hard work required to operate successful businesses, particularly when considering our recent battles with COVID and now the cost-of-living crisis.

Business ownership attracts motivated, focused, and courageous people - innovators and problem-solvers who are passionate about not only what they do but the important role they play in our community.

Their evening of achievement and celebration was well deserved.

ART ATTACK

The winners of our Sustainable Waste 2 Art Prize (SWAP) will be announced on Thursday 31 August at the See Gallery, Meadowbank, and considering the very impressive list of finalists, the judges will have had a long and difficult deliberation.

SWAP is an environmental art competition for people aged 10 and over who live, work, study, or play in the City of Ryde and aims to raise awareness of environmental issues and encourage positive behaviour.

You can view some of the amazingly creative entries at the See Gallery from Friday 1 September to Thursday 14 September, with an accompanying digital exhibition on our website from 1 - 30 September.

For more information visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/SWAP

DAD'S DAY

Father's Day has always been one of my favourite days of the year and this year Council's libraries are joining in the celebrations with a couple of special events.

On Thursday 31 August, Ryde Library is staging a Father's Day Crafternoon and Mocktails from 2.00 - 4.00pm with collage and card-making especially for dad.

For more information visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/crafternoon

On Saturday 2 September, West Ryde Library has Dad's Day Out from 10.30am - 1.00pm where the whole family can listen to a special Story Time, make a gift at the creative card table, and join a paper plane design challenge.

Sincerely,

Sarkis Yedelian
