

City of Ryde Mayor, Clr Sarkis Yedelian OAM arriving at the Granny Smith Festival

FESTIVAL FUN

I hope everyone enjoyed themselves as much as I did at this year's Granny Smith Festival, which was another great success for the City of Ryde.

I'd like to give a special thanks to all the hard-working Council staff and volunteers who spent many months ensuring that we were able to stage another unforgettable event, which was full of activities and fun for the whole family.

I was struck once again by our vibrant, diverse, multicultural community. Our harmony and inclusiveness are what makes our City such a special place to work, live, and play and it gave me great joy to see all of your happy, smiling faces.

And the good news is that we get to do it all again next year!

PUTNEY PALOOZA

If you're still in festival mode why not visit Putney Public School on Saturday 28 October between 10.00am and 4.00pm for its annual fete, known far and wide as Putney Palooza.

Entry is free but you can purchase tickets to go on some of the fun rides, including the Extreme Fun Run Obstacle Course, Jurassic Adventure, the mobile rock-climbing wall, the mechanical bull, and Cameron the Giant Caterpillar. And don't forget the petting zoo.

This is a great opportunity to come together and celebrate a wonderful school community while raising funds to help support its students.

HALLOWEEN HORSES

Halloween is almost upon us and The Riding for Disabled (RDA) Ryde Centre in Marsfield is throwing the paddock gates open and holding a fun community event on Sunday 29 October from 5.00-7.00pm.

Kids will enjoy trick or treating with a difference as they follow a spooky trail through the centre and meet the RDA ponies.

Kids tickets include a loot bag, treats, kids craft, jumping castle, fun games, cuddle, and photo with an RDA pony.
