

City of Ryde Mayor, Cllr Sarkis Yedelian OAM, Cllr Jordan Lane MP and Cllr Shweta Deshpande attending the 2024 Mata ki Chowki Celebration.

CULTURAL HARMONY

I've been reminded once again about how wonderfully diverse our multicultural Ryde community is after attending two fantastic recent events.

First up was my very first Mata ki Chowki Celebration, presented by the Indians in Ryde Council (IOSA) at West Ryde Community Hall. This was a devotional gathering dedicated to seeking the blessings of the Goddess Durga and featured some great singing and dancing.

The following evening, I joined the Eastwood Chinese Senior Citizens Club for the launch of Lunar New Year at Eastwood Plaza. This was another amazing event heralding the beginning of celebrations for year of the dragon.

Well done to all for helping to bring our community even closer together.

HIGH-RISE PETS

With an increasing number of our residents living in high-rise apartment towers and a move towards many of these buildings becoming pet-friendly, Council is providing expert advice from a vet on how you can care for your favourite animal in this distinctly urban environment.

Happy and Healthy Pets in High Rises, taking place at Lachlan's Line auditorium, North Ryde, from 7.00 – 8.00pm on Wednesday 28 February, will feature a Q&A session providing handy tips and take away information.

For safety reasons, please don't bring your pet.

SOCIAL PLAN

The City of Ryde is reviewing its current five-year Social Plan and its Creativity Strategy in order to update these two plans to help guide Council's work through to the year 2030.

We're looking to capture insights on the current and future social and cultural environment in the City of Ryde. The review will explore the challenges and opportunities for improving community services and facilities as well as developing creativity through arts, culture, businesses, and built environment.

I'm encouraging everyone to provide feedback on this vital strategy.
