2022 Road Safety Calendar

The City of Ryde has teamed up with six other northern Sydney councils and local illustrator Oscar Nimmo to create the 2022 Road Safety Calendar.

The 2022 calendar has a unique look and includes a number of important road safety messages for all road users.

There is also information on visibility for vulnerable road users, getting to school using active travel, safe parking tips, avoiding distraction as a pedestrian and more.

The 2022 Road Safety Calendar is available for free from City of Ryde Libraries, the Customer Service Centre, Ryde Aquatic Leisure Centre and various community locations. Residents can also have a calendar mailed to them simply by contacting Customer Service on 9952 8222 or cityofryde@ryde.nsw.gov.au

Council provides food relief assistance

The COVID-19 pandemic has seen a significant increase in food insecurity within the City of Ryde.

To assist, the City of Ryde is donating $5,000 each to local emergency food relief providers Sydney Community Services and Red Frogs Australia for the purposes of providing emergency food hampers to eligible members of the Ryde community.

The latest contributions means Council has now donated $50,000 to emergency food relief providers since the COVID-19 pandemic began.

Anyone who is facing food insecurity can visit www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/CommunitySupport for a complete list of local emergency food relief providers along with their contact details.

Council elections

The 2021 Council elections will take place on Saturday 4 December 2021.

Voting is compulsory for people enrolled in the City of Ryde local government area.

In conjunction with the Council elections, the City of Ryde will also hold a constitutional referendum in which voters will be asked whether they support a popularly elected Mayor.
