LATE ITEMS17 PREPARATION FOR 2020 LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTION - COUNCILLOR NUMBERS AND WARD BOUNDARIES

Report prepared by: Governance Coordinator
File No.: GRP/09/5/14 - BP19/1094

REPORT SUMMARY

The purpose of this report is to advise that under Section 224 of the Local Government Act, Council is required to determine the number of Councillors for the following term of office (2020-2024).

It is also to advise that Council has met its obligations under section 211 of the Local Government Act in respect of the numbers of voters in each ward of Council.

This report is therefore seeking Council's confirmation that no changes are to be made to the number of Councillors for the 2020-2024 Council term.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Council confirm that for the 2020 election, the number of Councillors be maintained at twelve.

ITEM 17 (continued)Discussion

The purpose of this report is to advise that under Section 224 of the Local Government Act, Council is required to determine the number of Councillors for the following term of office (2020-2024). It is also to note that if Council were to determine to make a change to the current number of Councillors, a referendum would be required at the next Local Government Election (September 2020) with the any changes to come into effect at the following Election (i.e. in September 2024).

Further it is to advise that Council has met its obligations under section 211 of the Local Government Act in respect of the numbers of voters in each ward of Council.

Determination of the number of Councillors

Section 224 of the Local Government Act requires Council to determine the number of Councillors for the following term of office (2020-2024). This is required to be determined not less than twelve months before the next ordinary election and that a referendum is required to change the number of Councillors.

The next Local Government General Election will occur on 12 September 2020, and therefore Council should have made a determination regarding number of Councillors for the next term of Council before 11 September 2019.

Due to an administrative oversight, this report is being considered after the 11 September 2019 deadline. Council is advised that it has notified the Office of Local Government regarding this oversight.

Section 224 states that:-

- (1) A council must have at least 5 and not more than 15 councillors (one of whom is the mayor).
- (2) Not less than 12 months before the next ordinary election, the council must determine the number, in accordance with subsection (1), of its councillors for the following term of office.
- (3) If the council proposes to change the number of councillors, it must, before determining the number, obtain approval for the change at a constitutional referendum.

It is recommended that the Council confirm that for the 2020 election, the number of Councillors be maintained at twelve.

ITEM 17 (continued)Confirmation of Ward Boundaries

Under section 211 of the Local Government Act, Council is required to keep its ward boundaries under review. In terms of this, if the number of electors in one ward in its area differs by more than 10 per cent from the number of electors in any other ward in its area, and that difference remains at the end of the first year of the following term of office of the council, the council must, as soon as practicable, alter the ward boundaries in a manner that will result in each ward containing a number of electors that does not differ by more than 10 per cent from the number of electors in each other ward in the area.

As at 26 August 2019, the NSW Electoral Commission data states that ward number estimates were as follows:-

Ryde Central	25,141
Ryde East	25,243
Ryde West	23,863
ALL	74,247

The variation between the wards with the highest and lowest estimates was 5.5 per cent.

Given that there is less than 10% variance between the numbers of electors in each ward, Council's obligations under Section 211 of the Local Government Act have been met. As a result, it is not necessary to make changes to the ward boundaries in preparation for the 2020 Local Government Election.

Financial Implications

Adoption of the recommendation will have no financial impact.

Councillor Attendance at Conferences Guideline

Related Policy

This guideline sets out the criteria to determine the attendance of Councillors at Conferences. It relates to the Policy on the Payment of Expenses and Provision of Facilities for the Mayor and Other Councillors.

Guidelines

Council acknowledges the value of Councillor attendance at conferences to enable them to be both knowledgeable and current on issues affecting the City of Ryde. In order to ensure that attendance at Conferences is equitable, transparent and consistent, attendance will be limited as follows:

1. Local Government Association Conference – the number of voting delegates plus one. Details of the delegates and attendee to be determined by resolution of Council.
2. Australian Local Government Association Conference.
3. In addition, to 1 and 2 above, every Councillor is entitled to attend one conference in either NSW, Canberra, metropolitan Brisbane or metropolitan Melbourne. The conference must directly relate to the business of Council. More than one Councillor may attend the same conference if Council resolves that this will be beneficial for both Council and the Councillors concerned.
4. Within 2 months after the conference the attending Councillor must report to Council on the proceedings of the conference. That report will be included in the Councillors Information Bulletin.
5. No Councillor can attend a Conference without the prior approval of Council. Reports to Council are to include details of the Conference and an estimate of the associated costs including registration, transport and accommodation.
6. Council may resolve that a Councillor can attend more than one conference per year but this determination will be dependant on budgetary constraints and with an emphasis on ensuring that all Councillors have equal access to conferences.
7. Each year, as part of the review of the Policy on the Payment of Expenses and Provision of Facilities for the Mayor and Other Councillors, Council officers will provide a full report of expenditure and Conference attendance by Councillors.
