Bush Tucker Gardens & Signage

BUSH TUCKER GARDENS

Creating gardens with Australian native plants is an essential learning and wellness resource that allows students and staff to feel a sense of ownership and knowledge.

We offer full and half-day bush tucker garden building with students and staff, tailored to suit the size and complexity of your garden.

PLANT SIGNAGE

We also offer designed plant signage to ensure cultural knowledge of the native plants stays within your organisation.

$60 EACH OR $55 WHEN YOU ORDER OVER 20 SIGNS

Educational Programs

We offer a range of programs suitable for primary through to High school students:

CULTURAL IMMERSION DAY

Allow all students at your school to experience Aboriginal culture, whilst participating in a day of Aboriginal educational activities.

This is a great option for schools wanting to do an end of year celebration or NAIDOC day, plus it's great in avoiding the costs of transport.

We offer up to 6 rotations of activities to experience including:

- Dance
- Weaving
- Cultural Art:
 - Boomerang Art
 - Art Mosaics
- Bush Tucker
- Indigenous Games
- Tools and Weapons
- Spear & Boomerang throwing

CENTENNIAL PARKLANDS OUTDOOR EXCURSIONS

Have your Early Childhood, Primary & High School groups engage with our Aboriginal educators on Bidjigal and Gadigal country of Centennial Parklands. All programs are curriculum linked with a range of cultural learning activities.

Teacher Professional Development & Cultural Immersion

ON COUNTRY PD

Our cultural immersion day is designed to get staff out of the office environment to learn more about Aboriginal culture, whilst participating in a range of hands-on cultural learning activities. Schools have the option of activities including:

- Connection to Country & cultural uses of native plants
- Cultural artefacts
- Aboriginal art & sand art
- Cooking with native ingredients
- Cultural dance
- Traditional weaving

NESA ACCREDITED TEACHER PD

Our NESA accredited one-day course “Deliver Deadly Aboriginal Education” for teachers targets the following outcomes, using a variety of engaging activities, resources, and hands-on learning;

- Your personal connection with Aboriginal culture
- Current barriers to delivering Aboriginal Education within the classroom & school
- Improving staff confidence & debunking the ‘eggshell topics’
- Embedding Aboriginal outcomes across the curriculum with authentic resources
- Where to go & who to access for support in your local area

Completing Deliver Deadly Aboriginal Education will contribute 5 hours of NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) Accredited PD in the priority area of Aboriginal education and supporting Aboriginal students/children addressing standard descriptors 1.4.2 and 2.4.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.

COST: $200PP - INCLUDES BUSH TUCKER MORNING TEA & LUNCH

Teacher Resource Packs

Trust us, we know how time poor & under-resourced our teachers and schools are already, so let us help you embed Aboriginal cultural perspectives in your classroom. Added bonus, everything fits straight into your current teaching program! Each pack contains lesson plans, instructions and culturally appropriate resources to support your teaching of Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander cross-curriculum priorities in the relevant Syllabus.

- History (Primary)
- History (Secondary)
- Aboriginal Studies (Stage 4 & 5)
- Early Years Learning

Deadly ED

LET'S MAKE YOUR CLASSROOM DEADLY TODAY!

Our mission is to ensure everyone, anywhere, can get access to quality and authentic Aboriginal Education.

Deadly Ed creates opportunities to enhance cultural awareness, and connection to country, and offers unique ways for all to get hands on with Aboriginal culture.

We hope to create a learning & social environment around Australia where our next generation of Aboriginal kids can feel supported to be deadly about their culture.

If you'd like to bring some deadly education into your school or centre, you can contact us below for bookings, queries or general feedback.
