About Deadly Ed

Deadly Ed launched in 2021 with the mission to ensure anyone, in any location, can get access to quality and authentic Aboriginal Education. We are 100% Aboriginal owned and operated.

The word 'deadly' represents a word in our mob meaning cool, awesome or wicked. 'Ed' being short for education - AKA our bread and butter.

Currently servicing NSW and recently expanded to QLD/Northern NSW.

We provide high-quality education programs, experiences, resources and advice for all ages and sectors.

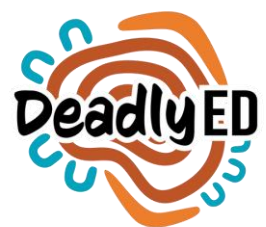

Our Story

Co-founders, Kane & Josh, both originated as teachers (both PE teachers) before leaving the department for other avenues of education (Kane at TAFE & Josh at the Botanic Gardens/DPIE).

Witnessing first-hand the growing struggle for schools and organisations to deliver authentic Aboriginal Education for their students, staff and wider community members, was the drive for starting Deadly Ed.
