Fun and magic of a Christmas beach party at Ryde Park

An afternoon of Christmas fun and magic is in store for all the family when the City of Ryde annual Community Christmas Celebration comes to Ryde Park on Sunday 8 December.

Santa will be there, along with live music and dance acts, plus lots of fun activities and giveaways.

As a special treat for all the children who have been good this year, the Council elves are busily building a giant sand pit with water slides for a summer beach party theme.

Drag mum and dad and the rest of the family along for a fun-filled festive treat:

- Whisper in Santa's ear - Santa will make a grand entrance at 5.45pm, then he will be in his beach bungalow just waiting to hear your special requests
- Unlimited water slides and summer rides (bring your cozzie and towel) - $10 per person (first 500 ride passes sold will receive a free ice cream). Mechanical surfboard, tropical jump n splash, surf machine, slip n slide
- Sausage sizzle and drink – gold coin donation
- Live music and dance acts – main act 'Endless Summer Beach Party'
- Giveaways and competitions
- Beach and Christmas craft – make your own kite
- Make a mini Christmas pudding
- LOMO Cooking demonstration – tips on how to makeover your Christmas leftovers (workshops at 2.15pm, 3.15pm and 4.15pm).
