

Thursday 27 June 2013

READ THIS ... TO SATISFY YOUR APPETITES

Ryde Council has just released two new pocket guides, guaranteed to satisfy your appetite for art and food, shops and what to watch.

Arts Program

Don't let the winter blues get you down. Fire your imagination with what's hot on the local arts scene this year with the new 12-page month-by-month guide.

Here's a sample:

June-July	The Unnoticed Group (works by recent graduates of the Sydney College of the Arts) - Brush Farm House Gallery
July	Australian Chinese Painting Society - See Street Gallery
August/September	Hungry for Art Festival - Various venues throughout our City
September/October	Korean Photography Society - Brush Farm House Gallery
October	City of Ryde Art Society Annual Exhibition North Ryde School of Arts Community Centre
December	Luke Kim Exhibition - Brush Farm House Gallery

Download: www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/artsandculture

Hardcopy: at your local library and Civic Centre Customer Service

Flavours of Ryde

Get to know the neighbourhoods with this bite-sized pocket guide to the interesting places and community events of our local town centres. This 34-page booklet uncovers some of the secret destinations only a local would know and is ideal for visitors, newcomers and curious residents.

Flavours of Ryde guides you to eating spots, where to shop and what to watch, as well as a fold-out map and festival liftout.

Interactive flipbook and download: www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/flavoursofryde

Hardcopy: at your local library and Civic Centre Customer Service

Attach: Covers x 2

Media contact: Lee Kirkland City of Ryde Media Officer 9952 8083