GHOSTBUSTERS AT EASTWOOD PLAZA GETS THE GREEN LIGHT

Eastwood Plaza will be turning green this Saturday evening for a special screening of all-time favourite movie Ghostbusters, as part of the annual Cinema in the Park festival.

Ryde Council is taking extra steps to ensure movie goers have a great experience by laying soft astro-turf over the surface of Eastwood Plaza, making it more comfortable for people to sit on their picnic rugs and low chairs. Atmospheric lights and decorations will add to the ghostly atmosphere.

City of Ryde Events Manager, Derek McCarthy, said provisions for wet weather have also been put in place. "Just in case there's rain, we've arranged to move the cinema viewing area to nearby Eastwood School under the pergola so that patrons can fully enjoy the movie."

So, gather your friends and family, pack a picnic and rug and head on down to Eastwood Plaza for a memorable night at the movies under the stars.

Ghostbusters is part of the popular Cinema in the Park festival run every year for local residents. www.ryde.nsw.gov.au/cinema
