Statement from the acting General Manager City of Ryde, regarding the role of the current General Manager

At last night's extraordinary meeting of the Council of the City of Ryde, a motion was passed to terminate the services of the current General Manager, John Neish. Mr Neish is currently on annual leave.

A rescission motion was lodged immediately during the meeting and will be considered at a future Council Meeting.

The current status of these actions is that until Council has determined the Rescission Motion, John Neish is the General Manager of City of Ryde.

Council staff and executive remain committed to undertaking their duties in the best interests of the citizens of Ryde during this period.
