PART 8 : INFORMATION ABOUT MAKING AN APPLICATION TO REVIEW A DETERMINATION

What is a Section 8.3 Review of Determination?

Section 8.3 of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act, enables an applicant to request Council to review a determination made in regard to a Development Application or a Section 4.55 Modification.

When can an Application for a Review of Determination be made?

An application for review must be lodged within 6 months of Council's determination date of the Development Application or Section 4.55 Modification.

The application must be made by the original applicant of the application, or person(s) having written consent from the applicant to lodge the request for review on their behalf.

What must be included in an Application for Review of Determination?

Your application must clearly explain the reasons why you are requesting a review, and any amendments that you wish to make to the development proposal. If these changes involve changes to the design, the application must include copies of plans that show these changes.

- Plans should clearly identify changes
- Plans should include: site plan, elevations, floor plan and/or sections.
- Changes should be in colour
- 3 copies of each plan must be supplied

- 3 x A4 copies if notification is required
- Electronic version (PDF) of complete application.
- 3 copies of completed application form or covering letter

You must also provide all relevant documents that support your application.

Note: From 1 March 2018, three (3) copies of all plans and documentation must be submitted as part of the application plus one (1) electronic version (PDF).
