	very popular although there have been some complaints about lighting and the effect on residents. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Balmoral Burn charity run was held recently. The run raises money for the Humpty Dumpty Foundation. - Council’s volunteer recognition awards were held recently. - Isabella Wilkes was named Young Volunteer of the Year and she is a very worthy recipient. - Riverside Girls High is performing the musical Wicked next week - A fashion show will be held soon at Ryde Secondary College. - SWAP will be held soon – look out for application dates. - Council will hold a Sustainability Festival on 2nd June 2019. - Cllr Pedersen advised that she recently moved at Council that consideration be given to providing a bike and kayak kiosk at Meadowbank. - A proposed inclusive fashion show will be discussed at the next Social Inclusion meeting. - The PACE project at Macquarie Uni was discussed. Council is currently involved in a project to make signage and place making around Macquarie Park - The recent HSC lock in was successful with 43 people attending. - The next lock in will have tutors in attendance.
6.	Differently abled people association – mobile app A presentation on the app created by the Association was made. The app features information relevant to the Ryde Council area including:- restaurants, toilet and drinking water facilities, garbage collection information etc. The group wants to build its customer base and get the app out into the community for its use. It is hoped to increase the reach and purpose of the app by setting up a feature for reporting incidents and issues directly to Council staff and also to provide a means of contacting Councillors. One of the benefits of the app is there is minimal need to type. It was suggested that more refined graphics would make the app more appealing and increase uptake in usage. A Youtube channel is available outlining the app and the work of the Association. Ryde Secondary School and Truscott Street School have support units and it was suggested that the group approach them. Vincent advised that contact has been made with these groups. The assisted skills program at TAFE was raised as a possible area to investigate. It was suggested that corporate sponsorship be sought. Ryde has a lot of tech companies that probably include inclusive programs. If people want to provide assistance, they should call Vincent and he will chat with them re volunteering opportunities etc. The group will also present to Council’s Social Inclusion Committee	Noted.

7.	Update - Emerging Civic Leaders Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tasnia and Cosmin provided an update. • The Macquarie portion of the team did the majority of the work • A new group may be invited to take part in a future course. • The interactive component of the course was well received. • Andrew will provide further details on any future courses to the group. 	Noted.
8.	Youth Opportunities Grant <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A grant is currently available from the NSW State Government to fund youth led projects • The grant requires groups to put together a project which responds to identified needs. • Youth need to work with Council or an NGO to run the budget and the project. • Guidelines relating to eligibility include:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - community inclusion - Cyber safety - Financial literacy - Domestic violence - Homelessness • Grants in the sum of $10,000 to $50,000 are available. • Applications close at the end of July 2019 • Cosmin advised that he would like the Youth Council apply for a grant to conduct a public speaking competition. • It would be necessary to investigate how best to incorporate this suggestion into the eligibility guidelines. • It was suggested that applicants have to speak on one of the topics identified in the grant. • A public speaking competition would give youth a voice and could be extended to people outside the Ryde area. • A working group will be required if the grant application is to be made. 	Noted. Andrew will forward eligibility criteria and further details to the group. Suggestions back to Andrew will then be required and a working group will be established if required.
9.	Marketing and Promotion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A revamp of the Youth Council’s social media is required to make it more engaging. • Cosmin suggested areas for consideration include a name change and a hook to encourage better engagement perhaps through teddy bears and stuffed toys. • He noted that in kindy, people would take home the class teddy and that perhaps the Youth Council could do something similar. • Members of the Youth Council would take it in turns to look after the animal/mascot chosen and would be encouraged to take it on outings and then post the result of facebook. • This procedure could be extended to a circle of friends and facebook followers through a competition or similar. • The mascot could appear at all Council/Youth Council events and appear on the coverpage of the facebook account. 	Andrew to arrange an online meeting of the social media group.
